News and Views from Unity Church of North Easton (Unitarian Universalist)

(Unity News submission deadline for the September 2010 Newsletter is August 22nd.)

Our diverse community is committed to the courageous pursuit of spiritual growth, promoting values of love, respect, freedom and service to others. We seek in harmony to provide a lifelong haven for enlightenment through our words and actions.

Musings

Dear Ones,

Summer is here, and things slow down a bit here at Unity Church. Both your music director and your minister have time off during the summer, so we will have volunteer and guest musicians during Dick's Sundays off and lay preachers during mine. You may notice that our services are a bit shorter and more casual than usual.

Another difference is that we do not have Sunday School or nursery care during the summer. We do have the board books in the back of the church. In case some kids get wiggly, Ernie Cohen has hooked up speakers in the Chaffin Room, and we will place a bin of toys there. If your kids get too wiggly, you can take them in there to play and still hear what's going on in the sanctuary.

You will notice that I will be away quite a bit through mid-August. July 7th through the 10th I will be in South Dakota for my mother's 80th birthday, returning to preach on the 11th. Starting Monday, July 12th, I will be on study leave for two weeks, then on vacation until August 15th, when I return to lead worship. This means I will not hold regular office hours from July 7th to August 16th. I will be around July 12th to 14th for some important meetings, then head up to Maine and later to Martha's Vineyard.

"Why so much time off?" people often wonder. Probably the study-reflection time is easier to understand. It is work time of a different sort, the time clergy need to read background materials, bone up on what's new in theology, church administration, ethics, and so on. We need to stay current. It is also time to fill our wells with meditation, reflection, pondering. When you consider that each year a minister writes over 300 pages of sermon material, the need for study-reflection time makes sense.

Why four weeks of vacation? That is more than many in our congregations enjoy. It might not seem fair. Consider that though our contract specifies 45 hours per week, like most ministers, I usually work at least 50 hours per week and sometimes as much as sixty. Ministers have only one guaranteed day off each week.

Besides that, ministers are on call for pastoral emergencies 24 hours a day, every day – even on days off, study leaves, and vacations. For an emergency like the death of a member or some cataclysmic event (heaven forbid) we come back even from vacation. I have been a minister for seven years, so have been on call for seven years. Anyone who has been on call knows this means ministers are always "on" and never really "off."

So I will be as "off" as possible this summer. I have arranged for local ministers to cover pastoral calls for me for most of this time. If you have an emergency you can contact .

July 7th-10th Tricia Brennan at 617-645-9681.

July 24th - August 13th Steve Wilson at 617- 852-2292.

You can call our Lay Pastoral Assistants for non-emergencies, me for the biggies (but let's hope nothing that dire happens this summer).

A Month of Sundays

Sunday July 4th Who Are UUs? Creating a Multicultural Family Tess Baumberger, leading.

As America becomes increasingly multi-cultural, Unitarian Universalism must do so as well if it is to survive as a religious movement. How could we foster a more diverse, multicultural congregational family? This service will include a child dedication.

Sunday July 11th Who Are the UUs? Family Stories, Part I

Tess Baumberger leads an intergenerational summer service centered on stories of famous Unitarian Universalists.

Sunday July 18th Harry Hope

Sunday July 25th Frank Smith

Sunday August 1st Bobbe Anderson

Sunday August 8th Jannelle Codianni

Sunday August 15th Who are the UUs? Family Stories, Part II

Tess Baumberger leads another intergenerational service featuring stories about famous Unitarian Universalists.

Sunday August 22nd Who are the UUs? Family Stories, Part III

Tess Baumberger continues her series of intergenerational summer services featuring stories about people in our tradition.

Sunday August 29th Cathy Adler

Sunday September 5th Who are the UUs? Family Stories, Part IV

Tess Baumberger features yet another story about a famous Unitarian Universalist.

Exploring a Theme for Next Year -Unitarian Universalist Identity by Rev. Tess

Summer is time to enjoy the present and also to think forward to, and plan for, the coming year. Lay leaders and I have been considering ideas for a theme to be carried through in worship, Religious Education, and so on. We talked about family and deepening our connections as possible options, but the idea that seems to be gathering steam centers on Unitarian Universalist identity.

The Adult Enrichment survey showed grownups are interested in this, and the Lifespan Religious Education Committee wants to give our children a sense of our religious identity. The theme is timely given that 2011 is the 50th anniversary of the merger of Unitarianism and Universalism. It feels like a good and timely theme.

So as I plan for next year, I ask you to think about how you could contribute to the conversation in a couple concrete ways.

1. View from the Pew - This year we will use a different focus for this popular segment. Let me know if you would like to do a 2-3 minute piece on a part of our history or theology that is particularly meaningful to you. What is central to your religious identity as a Unitarian Universalist?
2. Children's Time - I would love to have people dress up as Unitarian Universalist historical figures and talk to the kids as that person and about that person's life in the first person. I have a number of monologues already that you could use. *If you would like to do this as a favorite character, let me know. * If you don't want to do it, but would like to hear from a particular personage, please let me know that as well.
3. Sermon/service topics - is there a piece of UU history, beliefs, or identity that you can speak to, or would like to learn more about? Please let me know and we'll try to incorporate it!

Thanks - Rev. Tess Baumberger tbaumberger@uuma.org

Unity Church Restoration Update

Progress continues on the church restoration. The Joseph Gnazzo Company has completed a superb masonry restoration on all exterior walls and the two retaining walls on the west side of the building, including removal of over a century's worth of dirt and stains and a great deal of repointing.

Architect J. Thomas has been hard at work planning the next steps in the restoration. Nationally-known stained glass expert Robin Neeley has completed a comprehensive survey of all of our stained glass. Robin was the conservator for the LaFarge windows restorations a decade or so ago. Robin has helped us to determine which windows need attention first. The Chaffin Room's Good Shepherd window is in the most critical condition and will need to be removed to be restored at some point in the hopefully not too distant future.

In the meantime, the first order of business is to address water drainage problems that still threaten the building with water damage. The committee is investigating drainage improvements around the entire building, but especially under the Wisdom Window, where water finds its way through the foundation into the Work Room (old oil room).

We are also addressing new window protection for the stained glass windows. The old milky plastic window protection will be removed, and new tempered clear glass will be installed with improved venting over the old protection system. This change will not only lead to an improvement to the appearance of the building, but will also be healthier for the stained glass windows themselves. By getting the new window protection in place (and the adjacent wood restored), we will buy time to raise funds to restore the stained glass windows. Once the windows' woodwork is restored, the old yellow paint will be covered with the historically-correct Sycamore Tan color of the tower louvers. The building will finally be color coordinated! Restoration of all of the stained glass windows themselves will likely take place over years as funds become available.

We are aware that the driveways and parking lot started out in rough shape and have deteriorated with time and heavy equipment use. The committee is investigating ways to improve on this situation and will update everyone once we have a clearer idea of if and how we can remedy the situation.

For those of you who have completed their restoration pledge, many, many thanks! For those of you who have outstanding payments, thank you for your payments to date; and we certainly appreciate your continued commitment to your pledge as we grapple with all of the issues above. Every dollar counts!

As always, please feel free to speak with any of us on the Unity Church Restoration Committee (UCRC) if you have any questions, concerns, or suggestions.

HHRC - Ellen Dehm, Bob Champagne-Willis, Bill Ames, Mary Lu Love, Dick Hill

Worship Committee Notes

Thanks to several volunteers who have stepped up, we are no longer in need of lay leaders for our summer services. Our appreciation goes out to Harry Hope, Janelle Codianni, Bobbe Anderson, Frank Smith, and Cathy Adler for helping us avoid the necessity of canceling any of our summer services.

Additional lay leaders will be needed later in the year. Anyone interested should send an email to jgold.nec@comcast.net.

Tess's Summer Schedule

Tess will around the first part of July, preaching those two first Sundays. She will take most of her three weeks of accrued vacation time and two weeks of study time from July 12th through August 14th. She will be back in the pulpit on August 15th.

Tess has arranged for local ministers to cover pastoral calls for her for most of this time. If you have an emergency in the following time periods, you can contact....

July 7th-10th - Tricia Brennan at 617-645-9681.

July 24th - August 13th - Steve Wilson at 617- 852-2292.

Wherever she is, Tess is always on call for dire emergencies (even during vacation, but only the most dire) at 781 366-5701.

Kindness

by Naomi Shihab Nye, from Words From Under the Words: Selected Poems

Before you know what kindness really is you must lose things,
feel the future dissolve in a moment
like salt in a weakened broth.
What you held in your hand,
what you counted and carefully saved,
all this must go so you know how desolate the landscape can be between the regions of kindness.
How you ride and ride
thinking the bus will never stop,
the passengers eating maize and chicken will stare out the window forever.

Before you learn the tender gravity of kindness, you must travel where the Indian in a white poncho lies dead by the side of the road.
You must see how this could be you, how he too was someone who journeyed through the night with plans and the simple breath that kept him alive.

Before you know kindness as the deepest thing inside,
you must know sorrow as the other deepest thing.
You must wake up with sorrow.
You must speak to it till your voice catches the thread of all sorrows and you see the size of the cloth.

Then it is only kindness that makes sense anymore, only kindness that ties your shoes and sends you out into the day to mail letters and purchase bread, only kindness that raises its head from the crowd of the world to say it is I you have been looking for,
and then goes with you everywhere
like a shadow or a friend.

Co-ed Pictionary Night - Friday, July 16, at 8 pm (TBA)

Ralph Heath Card Night

Will resume again in September (no gatherings over the summer).

Executive Committee Meeting

Minutes - June 8, 2010

Present: Cathy Adler, Tom May, Ernie Cohen, Sue McGowan, Frank Smith, Chris Pender, Tess Baumberger, Rob Gilgan, Donna Taylor, Cheryl Brigante, Known absence: Michael Achey. Guests: Bob Champagne-Willis, Ellen Dehm.

Reading: Cathy read a quote from Margaret Wheatley: There is no power equal to a community discovering what it cares about.

Affirmations: Cathy thanked all the EC members over the last 3 years; all the people who worked the Yard Sale; Cathy Adler and Cheryl Brigante for their service for 3 years; the LREC (Lifetime Religious Education Committee); for all of the greeters for the year.

Holly House Restoration Committee (HHRC) update: Bob gave an update on the work at HH. The heating system is moving well, and they are deciding where to put the heaters. J. Thomas has been very helpful in suggesting multiple scenarios for making the building handicapped accessible and safe. After hearing the different possibilities, the EC agreed that changing the functions of some of the rooms may be a good idea.

Motion: The EC accepts the plans of the HHRC in re-arranging the functionality of the rooms at Holly House. Motion made by Chris; 2nd Frank. Unanimously approved.

Playground behind Parish Hall: Ernie has been approached by parents about the dangerous conditions present in the sandbox area; the wood is splintering and nails are exposed. A Unity member has volunteered to champion a group to dismantle it. Bob reminded us that Eleanor Leonard donated money for the existing area, and we should continue to honor her in whatever happens. He requested that it should be photographed and documented. Ellen cautioned us in rebuilding that we take into consideration all implications of the space. Mary Lu Love is a liaison to the Unity Church Restoration Committee (UCRC), who should be consulted. After discussion, the EC agreed that Ernie oversee the removal and make sure there is a committee to discuss and implement any new replacement area.

Personnel Committee: Cathy reported that the candidate who was interviewed for the CRE position had accepted another position. We will ask the congregation for additional help in advertising the position. The open sexton position is now being fulfilled using a commercial cleaning service, which Ernie is overseeing. They are doing carpets, bathrooms, and dusting the altar every 2 weeks.

Cathy has been on the Personnel Committee for a long time and would like to step down as soon as it is staffed adequately, but no later than the end of August. Rob Gilgan, as V.P., is on it; and the EC needs to find 2 other members. Its charter is to be infrastructure support for other committees that are hiring and to coordinate CORI checks. Cathy and Tess are currently certified to do CORI checks, and the church needs to be recertified next year. Cathy has agreed to do CORI for one more year, when her certification expires. It should be noted that our Church Mutual Insurance will help subsidize background checks for other states and has a process for those requests. Cathy is arranging for the online access to these requests.

Cathy announced that Temple Israel has informed us that they will be leaving Unity Church at the end of their contract – which is August – but their rent payments end in June. They are merging with another synagogue in Sharon.

Stewardship update:

$4,000 has been donated to UCAN.

The $5,000 match is for new pledges or increased pledges up to $400 per pledge.

We received an additional $2,500 pledge for this year 09-10.

We need to have pledge forms available for increased pledges. The EC recommends a direct approach to members to increase their pledges.

Fundraising: Chris demonstrated the web search engine, Good Search, which donates money to organizations. It will be advertised to members.

Transition: Cathy distributed notebooks and CDs with important UC documents as an orientation and historical continuity for EC members.

Retreat: We need to encourage newer members to attend and will increase communications about it. Tess has a list of supplies needed.

Alcohol Policy Subcommittee: The EC needs to charter this group and find members for it. The responsibilities are for liabilities, guidelines, etc. and how it influences other things at UCNE. Other ministers in the Ballou Channing District (BCD) have offered to share their policies.

UCRC (Unity Church Restoration Committee) recognition: The EC voted earlier in the year to raise $2,000; now we need to figure out how to raise it without being in competition with stewardship. EC members will personally ask individuals to donate $20 each. Donna Taylor and Sue McGowan will organize the process. We discussed making the phone list available to UC members. The UCRC celebration has been moved to 2011.

Committee on Ministry: The EC needs to appoint a member to this committee. This person needs to be objective and able to discuss difficult topics. A few members were suggested for asking.

Printer: Cathy has gotten a few estimates. Tom cautioned to be mindful of costs of toner.

Whiteboard: will be discussed at next meeting.

Minister's Report: was distributed.

Consent items: June 10th recital: approved

Adult OWL training in fall: Tess gave a recap of this request. The UUA is asking to use our facilities at no charge. The EC supports this depending upon hearing the full extent of the logistics and whether or not we can accommodate them.

Respectfully submitted, Cheryl Brigante, clerk

Unitarian Universalist Musicians in Madison
by Richard Hill

Five years ago when we hosted the Annual Convention of the Organ Historical Society here in Southeastern Massachusetts, a healthy number of the guests were UU musicians. I recall their visits to Unity Church where I played a recital and the following Sunday when several chose to attend our summer worship service. One of the guests who I got to know was Tom Garver of Madison, Wisconsin. Tom is a member of the First Unitarian Society of Madison. His church, designed in 1949 by Frank Lloyd Wright, has one of the larger UU congregations in the United States with over 1,600 members and over 500 children in their RE program. Three professional staff their music program. Our former interim minister, Jay Deacon, served this congregation for several years.

Tom was thrilled with our North Easton Village and the architecture and art of our church. In fact, he wrote a glowing letter which we used to support our quest for funds from the Community Preservation Act and the Massachusetts Historic Commission.

I have maintained contact with Tom over the years and was happy to learn that this summer's Unitarian Universalist Musicians Conference will be held in Madison in July, and several of its events will take place in the Frank Lloyd Wright Church. The last church I visited by that architect was the Greek Orthodox Church in Milwaukee, which resembled a recently arrived flying saucer on a hilltop. It was gorgeous.

I try to keep up with our UU musicians and have been to several of their summer sessions, the last of which was conveniently in Boston in 2008. This year the Madison Concourse Hotel is the headquarters with events being held at First Unitarian Society and the First United Methodist Church.

Among the programs I will attend are "Music for Healing and Transition" led by harpist Linda Warren; networking times with choral reading sessions; "Integrating Instruments into Worship;" Children's Music with Heather Thorpe, whose youth choir at the Madison church averages 75 to 100 children; Creative Collaboration with Ministers and DRE's; creative interchange with other musicians, and organ repertoire sessions.

There will also be sessions with Fred Onovwerosnoke, a Ghana native and director of the St. Louis African Chorus; Ragani and her band of percussionists, guitarists, and other musicians; choral clinician Dr. Stephen Alltop, and composer Stephen Paulus.

Meanwhile, Sandra has googled the quilting centers of Madison, so we'll have an interesting and enriching week in the Midwest exploring that vast world of what we don't know.

I look forward to greeting veteran and new singers in our choir on Sunday morning, September 12, at 9:00 am in the Chaffin Room. Write down the date now so you'll remember it. We'll have a diversity of music ready to go, and I look forward to the fun of putting it all together.

Our Children's Choir will also begin that Sunday around noon with lots of fresh music from Madison. The handbells will resume rehearsals on Wednesday evening, September 8, at 7:00 pm in the Chaffin Room.

For all you handbell "roadies," the bells will perform on Friday evening, July 23, at the Plymouth UU Church on Town Square in Plymouth for their restoration fund. Come to the oldest parish in America for a delightful summer evening.

And the Wednesday 12:15 pm organ recitals will continue on July 28 with "Old-timer's Day at the Organ" and August 25 with "August Aires."

Have a great summer !

The Fundraising Corner by Chris Pender

Here's a new, easy way to raise money for Unity Church. Just start using Yahoo! powered GoodSearch.com as your search engine, and they'll donate about a penny to Unity every time you do a search!

In addition, do all of your shopping through their online shopping mall, GoodShop.com, where you can shop at more than 900 top online retailers and a percentage of your purchases will go Unity Church as well. You pay the same price as you normally would, but a donation goes to the Church!

Here's the web site — <http://www.goodsearch.com>. You can also read about GoodSearch in the NY Times, Oprah Magazine, CNN, ABC News, and the Wall Street Journal. Here's an estimate of how much we can earn, according to the GoodSearch website:

Charity or School Size	Number of Supporters	Average Amount Purchased/Year	Percentage Donated	Estimated Donation/Year
Small	100	$500	3%	$1,500
Medium	1,000	$500	3%	$15,000
Large	10,000	$500	3%	$150,000

A couple of people on the EC and myself have been using good-search for a couple of weeks, and we have already raised over $4.00. Imagine if all of us used this!!!! You will be asked for the name of your charity the first time you visit the site—we're listed. After that, the site should remember your charity each time to log on.

Keep an eye out for a date for a planning fundraising meeting this summer. We could use any and all ideas you have!!!!

Ongoing Fundraisers:

Purchase Shaw's and Hannaford's cards from Frank Smith at social hour...we make 3-4% on each card.

Mario's Trattoria: We receive 10% from every purchase; just make sure you tell the cashier you are from Unity Church and save your receipts. Put them in the fundraising box in Holly House.

Cartridge World: We receive about $.75 for used ink cartridges. Just drop them in the Cartridge World box, which is currently in the Chaffin Room. NOTICE: Cartridge World is no longer able to receive the large toner cartridges.
